Curriculum Guide Creator

Jean Kilker, M.A. (English), M.Ed. (Technology), NBCT (National Board Certification) taught language arts, reading and science. Currently, she is a Teacher-Librarian and past Follett Librarian of the Year. She is a member of the Public Library Advisory Board and co-chair of the State Teacher-Librarian Organization. She also teaches and writes curriculum at the university level for continuing teacher education in ESL, elementary language arts, reading and librarianship.

In addition, Kilker has received grants and awards that benefit the students where she teaches. A native of Phoenix, Ariz., she and her husband live in Litchfield Park, Ariz., and keep in touch with their three world-traveling children.
